The focus area of the Junior League of Bergen County is the health, wellness and safety of women and children. This focus includes education, leadership and resilience. If you have any volunteer experience in these areas, please be sure to highlight it.

In reviewing the applications, the committee will be most concerned with a student's demonstrated commitment to voluntarism. Secondary criteria include leadership, extra-curricular activities, scholastic effort, and work or family responsibilities.

Applicants must plan to attend an accredited college, university, or trade school after graduation from high school. Children of Junior League of Bergen County members are not eligible to apply.
